A five day Summer Institute that will provide an excellent venue for the implementation of the 90-Minute Reading Block while integrating both technology and social studies content is now accepting applications!!

Focus of the Week

Day One: Overview: Technology, 90-Minute Block, and Social Studies

Day Two: Flipping Your Classroom, Using Digital Devices

Day Three-Four: Tailoring Instruction for Differentiated Groups

Day Five: Assessment and Unit Thumbnail Presentations

Using Technology to Integrate Meaningful Content into the 90-Minute Reading Block

K-6

Please bring your own tablet (e.g. iPad) if you have one. Otherwise, Purdue will provide one for your use during the Institute.

Contact Information:

The James F. Ackerman Center: Dr. Asta Balkute (765) 496-3335

The Center for Literacy Education And Research (CLEAR): Elizabeth Hopper (765) 494-2356

The James F. Ackerman Center for Democratic Citizenship and the Center for Literacy Education and Research (CLEAR) are seeking to select 15 teachers who will be receiving:

◆ 3 graduate credit hours;
◆ 54 books of high quality children’s literature at various levels;
◆ Parking passes and lunch.

Apply online by February 28, 2014

http://ackerman.education.purdue.edu/center_programs/Summer_institute.html

A recommendation letter from your principal is required!